

Clifford Jon Rosenfeld

March 6, 1972 - March 25, 2025

Clifford Jon Rosenfeld, age 53, passed away on March 25, 2025. He is survived by his sister, Mardi Linn Rosenfeld, of Orlando, Florida, and his friend, John Gardner, of Alexandria, Virginia. The funeral mass will be celebrated on April 11, 2025, at 10:30 am at St. Louis Catholic Church in Alexandria, Virginia.

Cliff was born on March 6, 1972, in Mineola, New York, to Martin and Margaret Mary Luedcke Rosenfeld. He grew up in both New York and Florida. Cliff always loved cars. As a child he loved firetrucks and matchbox cars. Naturally, he grew up to become a car salesman working in Miami, Ft. Lauderdale, and Orlando in Florida as well as in northern Virginia. Cliff was the youngest person to earn a license to sell cars in Florida, Cliff always loved animals “because animals never hurt you.” He especially loved dogs. His best friend for nineteen years was Louie, his multi-poo. Cliff was celebrated for his good humor and his abundant charm. He kept his friends and family laughing. Cliff was preceded in death by his parents and his half-sister.
