“ December 12, 2008 Dear Roger and girls. I just found out about Colette from my son John. So sorry I didn't know sooner. I'm really going to miss her. You will be in my thoughts and prayers in the coming days and weeks. She was a remarkable human being, a kind and loving friend, and a wonderful French teacher. Helen Helen Gettys Michie

“ Dear Roger and Family, We are sincerely sorry for the loss of Colette. We fondly recall first meeting you and Colette in Paris and in recent years seeing you all here in Northern Virginia. Colette was a joyful fighter. She maintained a joie de vivre for her family, friends, and students in spite of her illness. She truly lived until she died and is an example for all of us. She is now looking out for you from heaven. You will be in our prayers in the coming days.
