

Corrie L. Monroe

September 4, 1961 - January 25, 2016

Corrie Leonetta Monroe was born on September 4, 1961 in Henderson, North Carolina, and passed away on Monday, January 25, 2016 in Arlington, Virginia. She was the only child of the late Mary 'Jo' Monroe and William Monroe and later the cherished stepdaughter of the late Odell 'Dale' Keitt. She spent her early years Henderson, North Carolina and as a pre-teen relocated to Pomfret, Maryland where she graduated from Saint Mary High School. She attended Charles County Community College and later, in her adult life, she attended George Washington University in Washington, DC.

Corrie was the Founder, President and CEO of Integre' Consulting - her very own consulting firm – where she worked as a defense Industry Consultant for many years. Most recently, she worked for Booze Allen Hamilton in Foreign Military Sales at the Washington Navy Yard. She loved this career and especially enjoyed working for Booze Allen Hamilton.

Corrie had two great loves in her life: her late cat Tuffy (who lived to be 19 years old!) and her happy little cockapoo named Kodi, who is currently 11 years old. She truly loved animals from the bottom of her heart.

Corrie was a true connoisseur of the finer things in life. She had a wide range of hobbies and interests – photography, astronomy, music, the list goes on and on. She was a foodie who enjoyed cooking, dining out and trying different cuisines (she loved seafood!). She was a techie who could always be found with the latest computers, cell phones and other electronic devices.

She leaves to cherish her memory uncles Frederick 'Freddy' Alexander (Emma), Wilfred 'Ham' Alexander, and Clarence Keitt (Patricia). She is also survived by an Aunt Doris 'Baby Jean' Penn (Roland) and a host of cousins and friends. Relatives and friends may call at Jefferson Funeral Chapel 5755 Castlewellan Dr., Alexandria, VA on Wednesday, February 10, 2016 from 10 am until time of service at 11 am. “ Here's what I wanted to say, I was just too emotional to say:
Some of us are born with sisters and yet others are blessed with them through life experiences. Corrie was my older sister...the one you looked up to, the one who set the standards: hair, make up, dress, and presentation.
She was my sister...my confident who kept my secrets, a great listener who gave good sound advice, and more importantly a cheerleader.
She was my sister...always up for a good time of adventure seeking...crab feasts, local parties, and only the best shopping experiences.
She was my sister...someone to share my joys, my fears, and my sorrows. She made those rides home a little shorter, those life experiences a little sweeter, and coming to work a little more enjoyable. You knew that if Corrie was going, it was something great because she demanded only the best from her shelf and life. What a way to live? What a way to teach? Thank you Corrie. Thank you for being a wonderful sister and an even more amazing friend. Thank you to the family for sharing Corrie with us, may God Bless you during this time of transition.

“ I'm Free

I'm Free - Unknown

This poem is attributed to various authors and is also known by several different titles

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.*

*I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.*

*Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.*

*A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

*My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.*

*Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.*

“ I extend my heartfelt condolences to the Corrie Monroe family. Corrie was a dear friend, very outspoken, charming, inspirational and always carried a great smile and sense of humor. I was deeply sadden to hear the abrupt news of her passing. Sadly, her friendship will surely be missed by all. She is with the Lord now and may she rest in peace. May the Lord grant the Monroe family the strength the persevere during the loss of their beloved.

“ To the family, thank you for allowing me to share in the joy of knowing Corrie over the past 5 years. In my office, we are considered family to each other and I was so sadden to hear of Corrie's passing. I will truly miss her beautiful smile and saying "are you ready to go get some lunch"? There was not a week that went by we did not have lunch together or communicate in some way. God has called another one of his angel's home to enjoy their sweet reward. Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal. Rest In Peace my friend.

“ Thank you for being an amazing friend. I am going to miss you, our long talks, lunches, and all of the future events we had planned i.e. crab feasts and the Halloween party. I pray that your soul is at peace and that your light is shining bright in Heaven. May God wrap his loving arms around your family during this time of transition and bless them with fond memories.
