

Damon Douglas Goddard

December 2, 1976 - November 26, 2025

Damon Douglas Goddard (48)

Damon Douglas Goddard departed this life on November 26, 2025. He was born on a snowy morning in Davenport, Iowa, on December 2, 1976, and brought joy, curiosity, and compassion to all who knew him.

Damon graduated from North Cross School in 1994, The University of Virginia in 1998, and later earned his law degree from George Mason School of Law in 2004. He built a career in federal government contracting, serving the Veterans Administration, the Department of the Treasury, and eventually his own firm.

A lifelong learner and devoted student of history, Damon held a particular admiration for Thomas Jefferson and the enduring ideas that shaped our nation.

He leaves behind his heartbroken parents, Susan and Jefferson Teass of Vinton, VA; his younger brother and sister-in-law, Tyler and Heather Teaass of Crozet, VA; and his beloved nephew and nieces – Avett, Ellis, and Hazel. He is also survived by his special Aunt Carol and cousin Melanie Bryant, along with extended family and dear friends who will carry his memory forward. A Celebration of Life will be held at Jefferson Funeral Chapel, followed by burial at Mount Comfort Cemetery in Alexandria.

“ Damon you rocked it! Bouncing between great philosophers and smash good cocktails in New Orleans. Too short a journey but I will always remember your kindness and thoughtfulness whenever we were together. I hope you are driving that kick-ass Mustang convertible around the universe. Every time I drive my kick-ass BMW convertible around the desert I will send you a big hug and wave. You are so missed.
