“ Darren and his family lived a few doors down from us in Marlborough in Calgary when he was in school. My daughter and I were at their house many times and Darren would always be welcoming and cheery. Ron and Marie's children were special to Jennifer and me because of their presence and companionship. Through correspondence with Marie I kept abreast of Darren's growing up, along with Steve's and Ronda's news. Darren was a sweet man, and his smile will linger in our memories. My sincere sympathies to Ron, Marie, Steve, Ronda and Darren's daughters and wife. May Darren's memory be a blessing. He will be missed, oh so much!

“ I had the pleasure of knowing Darren and his family for several years. He and his parents & siblings would often come over on Sundays after church and I also went to school with him. Darren was a very kind and genuine human being with a terrific sense of humour. He truly loved his family and friends and heaven has been gifted with a new angel. My heart goes out to his entire family and his lovely daughters. Rest in Peace my dear friend. You left far too soon and will be very missed.....until we meet again.

“ A genuine and lovable man. Fiercely committed, authentic, kind, goofy, and completely "SNL witty" to easily crack a smile on anyone within range. You lit up my face book page with your presence, as you did with all the other Calgary high school alumni. Your reach was far beyond what you probably thought. We can only pay it forward on your behalf now. Rest in peace dear friend.

“ I haven't seen Darren for many years. But facebook had found a way to bring all us high school friends together again. His humour, sense of kindness and love for friends and family never changed. Always a kind word or a good joke to share but mostly the love he had for his family. He loved his girls so and he made sure we all saw how proud he was of them. It's hard to say good bye to someone who had so much life and love in him. I will miss seeing your posts and catching up on life. May God take you his arms and give the hug I'm sending to heaven. See you on the other side. Rest in peace my friend.

“ Well Darren was a great friend and roommate for several years growing up . Always smiling , laughing and joking ! He was quite the character ! Many many good times. Too many to tell from back in the day .

I have not seen of him for many years (only to drop a line privately here and there) keeping in touch from a distance . Sad and shocked to here or your passing .. too young ol" friend. . You will be dearly missed by many . Sending peace and healing to your family and friends xo. He was clearly a great father , friend , brother , and son whom was deeply loved !

“ Our friendship started in Miss Facca's grade 1 class at St. Paul's elementary. You are so easy to spot in the photo with your sweet little smile and puppy dog eyes. You have been a constant friend across the decades and miles. And you will continue to be as I carry your memory and sincerity with me until we meet again. My most heartfelt condolences to your mom and dad, brother and sister and beautiful girls. Rest in peace dear friend.
