

David Alan Sattler

September 30, 1959 - December 18, 2017

David Alan Sattler passed away peacefully on December 18, 2017, at the age of 58 after a long illness. He leaves behind his wife of 27 years, Margaret Feinstein, and two sons, Ethan and Benjamin Sattler, all of Arlington, Virginia. Also surviving him are his mother, Betzi Sattler, his brother, Steven Sattler (Karyn DiGiorgio), his sister, Phyllis Taber (Ross), and countless family members and friends whom he loved and who loved him. He practiced law in Arlington, VA and was a substitute judge in the Arlington and Alexandria General District Courts. He also served as General Counsel to the Signature Theater in Alexandria, Virginia. David's integrity, judgment, kindness, and dry humor combined with his practical approach to life and the practice of law made him treasured by his family, friends, and clients. He served as President of his long time synagogue, Agudas Achim Congregation of Alexandria, Virginia, President of the Walter T. McCarthy Law Library of the Arlington County Bar Association and was also a member of the Board of Trustees of Gesher Jewish Day School in Fairfax, Virginia.

Services will be held at Agudas Achim Congregation (2908 Valley Dr, Alexandria, VA 22302) at 10:00 AM on Wednesday, December 20th, and Shiva will be held at his home starting at 6:30 on Wednesday, December 20th, as well as on Thursday, December 21st, and Saturday, December 23rd. He will be missed.

“ I was shocked to learn of David's passing, and extend my deepest sympathies to his wife Margaret, his sons Ethan and Benjamin, and to his mother, brother and sister. David and I were good friends in law school; I doubt I could have made it through without the benefit of his companionship and sense of humor. We stayed close for a few years after graduation while I lived in Northern Virginia., and then lost touch with each other. As my friend, he was steadfast, generous and kind. I know that I and all of you who knew him and loved him will miss him terribly.
