“ Don is a man of integrity and we will miss him greatly. His kindness and willingness to help was his hallmark. Though the God of Heaven called him back home we all cherish the time we had with Don while he was "on loan" from Him. Good bye dear friend.

“ We have known Don for many years, from Bucknell School days when his daughter, Paula, and my daughter, Christy, were best friends. We went through school events, sports, St. Louis Church events through the years. I worked at St. Louis Church also when his first wife, Mary, worked there and she and I were friends many years. I attended Don and Eva's wedding a few years ago. We have recently moved away from Alexandria and I was saddened to hear of Don's death. our prayers are with all of his the family.
