“ The many stories that Dottie shared with me while sitting on the porch in Canada tells me she lived a full, adventurous and wonderful life where she treasured her family most. She adored you John and I am sure she will still be watching from the porch each time to you head out to go fishing. Michael & I are here for you on Post Office Gate Lane.

“ We have loved Dot for many years and shall miss her a great deal. We had so many good times around dinner tables in Africa, Virginia, at our cottage and theirs. Dottie loved a party and we loved to party with her.
