Dr. Marshall E. Flax

On Tuesday, September 22, 2015 Marshal E. Flax, DDS of Port Saint Lucie, FL, formerly of Alexandria, VA passed away. Beloved husband of Debra Flax; son of Joseph and Beverly Flax, brother of Dr. Ira L. Flax (Phyllis); brother-in-law of Anne Straub (Steven) and uncle of Jennifer Bonnin, Emily Flax, Alexandra, Jacob and Max Straub. Born In Richmond, Virginia but raised in Alexandria. Marshall attended Hammond High School, the University of Richmond and the School of Dentistry of the Medical College of Virginia. He practiced dentistry in Alexandria and Falls Church for 34 years before retiring to Florida in 2006. He was a member of Agudas Achim Congregation in Alexandria where the Flax Family dedicated the daily chapel, and of Temple Beth El Israel in Port Saint Lucie. Marshall was proud to have been an Eagle Scout. He was never happier than visiting with his patients and loved his family and friends, old and new. He loved life and never met a stranger. Marshall lived his life with exuberance and joy, and was never without a new friend wherever he went. He will be missed dearly by his family and friends. Graveside service at King David Memorial Gardens, Falls Church, VA on Sunday, September 27, 2015 at 10 AM. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Aguda Achim Congregation in Alexandria or Temple Beth Israel in Port St. Lucie, Florida in Marshall's name.
