Earl truly adored Fonzie (#1), Elaine, as well as the comfort and serenity of his country home. He was a very kind gentle giant of a man. Cars were also his passion as he could go through them faster than I could go through a pair of socks. I wish those who knew him and loved him (especially his family), peace and my prayers are with you to ease the pain at this difficult time.

“ I remember when Earl and Elaine came into the restaurant--Village Wharf. Earl was so quiet and refined. Then we would get that man out with the girls (us) and he was so outgoing. Who's jokes were better, of course, mine, he always disagreed, but, none the less, mine were better. We always had the best time with Earl, no wonder Elaine did not want us to know him before too many years ago. I still win on the jokes though. Greatest man! So loving, gentle , friendly, and giving (he may not want to be known for some of that, but that is who he was!). I will miss him dearly. God be with you and those that have survived you.

“ *Dad was a great man. Whenever we went to visit him, he would always make me laugh. From the first day I met him over 25 years ago, he always gave me good advice. He will be greatly missed! My prayers go out to all the family.
