I called her Mrs. Wickert growing up. She was such a wonderful example of a loving mother and wife to me and always made me feel welcome in her home. She and Mr. Wickert were truly blessings to others. I will always hold her in my heart. Loretta ..known as Laurie by her. God bless you Mrs. Wickert!

“ Edith was such a wonderful friend; I will certainly miss her beautiful smile and encouraging words here on earth, but we have hope that we will be reunited in the presence of our Heavenly Father. EVERY time I saw Edith, she had a compliment to bless me with--it was such a blessing to me. She knew who she was in Christ, and taught others who they are in Christ with such simplicity, yet profoundly. I loved this dear friend; she was such a strong, excellent example of what it means to be a Christian woman.

“ I remember Mrs. Wickert well. She was a strong and very loving woman. My wife and stepchildren benefited so much from her loving care. A dear friend has died and the selfish side of me tells me to mourn the loss. The religious side of me tells me to rejoice in her passage and arrival in heaven. She loved the Lord so much and now she is with him. She is free from the pain that had racked her body in her final days. She is healed, whole and very happy! For what more could a friend ask?

“ Tom, Deb and I are sad for our loss, we are moved by your loss at Edith's passing as well. Our church has lost a fellow prayer warrior and servant of Christ, but we do take joy in that her struggle in life and with illness and pain has subsided and Edith has graduated to glory and grace that we can only dream of on this side. We pray for you and your family and we wish the Lord's best for you. Please keep us aware of how you are doing and how we can help you all. With you in heart, T. J. and Deb Vercouteren
