“ *Dear Debbie and Family,
I am truly sorry for your loss. I would like to express to you and the family my sincere condolences. It's never easy to lose a loved one, but do know that God has taken him home where he can finally rest at ease and be happy forever! Sometimes we don't understand why but never lose hope and faith. God has a plan for us all and one of them is to bring us home sometimes sooner than expected or later. May your father Ed Rest in Peace and continue to watch over you all. Stay strong and always know that he will spiritually always be there with you and your mother. Take care always and may God continue to Bless you and your mother with many many more healthy years to come.*

“ Dearest Kay and Debbie, you all have been a great beautiful part of my life. Ed was a special kind-hearted human being. I remember his compassion, his laughter and wonderful sense of humor. Ed's personality was infectious, the fact he could strike up a conversation with almost anyone and hold one's attention shows his selfless character.. In the days going forward, you both will sense his absence, I believe he is around you now, embracing you both .. He is your" Angel".. May the Lord Bless you and keep you in His loving care. Keep your eyes to the heaven and look towards the stars, Ed is there, with the brightest of light.. Love you.
