“ I will truly miss Ed's warm and friendly face on Sunday morning. I enjoyed all the time that I spent with Ed, Reg and Frank cleaning up Van Dorn with the Methodist Men. Additionally, I enjoyed the several years we worked together on the Crop Walk and shared stories while waiting on everyone to finish the walk. I do not believe in the 17 years that I had the pleasure of knowing Ed that I ever heard him say anything bad about another person. During my Mom's extended illness, he always asked about her and my Dad. For this I am truly grateful. I will truly miss him as a friend and father-like figure who I greatly respected. Doug Brown
