“ I'm sorry to hear about your recent passing. I know Mrs. Ungerleider was a dear loved one. I didnt know Mr. Ungerleider personally but I just wanted to leave you and your family some encouraging words during this trying time. Even though the future looks grim the Bible brings out a time when death will be no more and soon we will see our dead relatives again. (Revelation 21:4, Acts 24:15) So, when you feel as if times are getting hard just turn to the Bible. I hope this message leaves some sort of encouragement and I'm praying for your family.

“ My deepest condlences for the loss of our loved one. I's times such as these, that we can draw comfort from the only reliable source of true comfort, God's word,that promises us that death will be brought to nothing at 1Corinthians 15:26.We will welcome our loved ones back to life in the resurretion promised at John 5:28,29,on a paradise earh where the righteous will live forever on it... Psalms 37:29. This is the wonderful hope our Heavenly Father extend to each and every one us.
