“Brother Cherry and Family, Our sincere condolences and prayers for your strength and comfort. Trust in God's promises that He is indeed with you through your time of sorrow and grief. Scripture reminds us that He will never leave us nor forsake us. I hope you find some comfort from the promise of the words captured by the prophet Isaiah below: "When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; And through the rivers, they shall not overflow you. When you walk through the fire, you shall not be burned, Nor shall the flame scorch you." Isaiah 43:2

“ Ivy, I am so sorry about the loss of your mother. I pray that you are able to find comfort and strength during this time. I cant tell you that this is going to be easy, because there will be some hard days ahead. However, as I think back to the years we spent together in Ft. Benning, GA, I can remember the courage and strength you had then and I know you possess those same qualities now. You will get through this. Take care of yourself. Love you, Trimease King Carter Rest in Peace Mrs. Cherry

“ We didn't know that Saturday morning when we visited, God was going to call your name. In life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone. For parts of us went with you the day God called you home. You left us beautiful memories, your love, faith and patience is still our guide. And though we cannot see you, you are always at our side. Our friendship chain is broken and nothing seems the same, But as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.
