

Emily Denison Atkins Pullin

November 18, 1924 - February 27, 2015

Emily Denison Atkins Pullin (90 years old)

Emily passed away on February 27, 2015. She was a native of Virginia, born in Vienna, and lived in the Groveton area of Fairfax County for over 50 years. In 2013 she moved to Fredericksburg, VA to be closer to her daughter.

She was a charter member of Faith United Methodist Church serving for over 50 years by teaching Sunday School, singing in the choir, and visiting and helping church members in any way she was needed. She loved her Lord and was doing His work at all times.

Being among the first staff to open Edison High School, she worked for the Fairfax County Public School System until her retirement in 1980. After her retirement, she realized how much she enjoyed children, so she volunteered at Groveton Elementary School for many years.

Emily was the loving wife of the late Vincent Atkins and the late Albert Lewis Pullin; beloved mother of Susan Morris (Thomas) of Fredericksburg, VA; sister of Dorothy McMahan of Virginia Beach, VA; grandmother of Jill Corley (Stephen) of Stafford, VA and John Morris (Christy) of Annandale, VA; great-grandmother of Jessica, Scott, and Brandon Corley and Conner and Jackson Morris. In addition, she is survived by several nephews and a niece. Relatives and friends may call at Jefferson Funeral Chapel, 5755 Castlewellan Drive, Alexandria, VA on Wednesday, March 4 from 12 noon until time of service at 1 PM. Interment at National Memorial Park, Falls Church, VA. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to The Alzheimer's Association, 2217

Princess Anne Street. Fredericksburg, VA 22401.

“ Mrs. Emily Pullin was a lovely friend and neighbor of many, many years. She loved interacting with the children and would still ask about them even though they are now adults themselves. I loved this dear woman and will miss her dearly. Halloween will never be the same without her. With deepest sympathy, Judi Hyde
