“ Dear Aunt Marie, When I called and talked to you 2 weeks ago on your Birthday, you sounded so weak and tired, and still yet you took the time to send me a Birthday card. In the the card you told me that you loved me and that you knew I loved you too! You fought the battle as long as you could. Myself as well as the rest of your nieces and nephews will greatly miss you for we all were your children. So go now and rest and be with Granddaddy Moe, and Uncle Russ, and all of the rest of the family in Heaven.

“ Aunt Marie, I could go on forever and share so many memories that I have of you, you have always been an inspiration to me and have showed me what unconditional love is. You will always have a special place in my heart. No matter what you would drop whatever you were doing and listen and be there for me. I know you are with so many that love you as you are loved down here. I know that my little girl MaKenzie Marie never got a chance to meet her Aunt Marie, but she will have you as her guardian angel. I love you and will always cherish all the love that you gave me. Sherry
