“ I think of your father as welcoming, generous and kind. He did not say much, but spoke with intention and conviction. He had a quiet humor and often a smile. It was great to hear more about his social activism. I heard his love of family and Panama meant he threw some great parties. Sending love to your family.

“ All through my life, I've known Uncle Ev as a laid-back, calm, and gentle man. As an adult, I remember us always spending some isolated private time together. He would always have some childhood stories, some good life stories, some war stories, and some sage wisdom to share. I am realizing that (as my cousin would say) we were creating memories. Uncle Ev will always be a part of my life, and that of my daughter's.

May he rest in peace.

“ He wasn't just a friend but an extension of our family—he was someone whose presence genuinely enriched our lives. We feel grateful to have known him and to have shared in the family's milestones, celebrations, and joys over the years. Those memories mean so much, and they always will. Please know that we're holding all of you close in our hearts during this difficult time, and we're here with love and support. With love, prayers, sympathy and condolences. Agnes Heard

Maj Warner i would see him on the way passing my house in Laboca headed to the baseball field by the oil tankers. I lived right in the opening to baseball field. I met him again at my sister's 50th anniversary. Then again at the Panamanian Korean veterans recognition in Texas.
