

Fang Yeng Sui

November 25, 1932 - March 3, 2018

Fang Yeng Sui (隋芳燕) passed away peacefully in hospital in Lorton, Virginia last Saturday, March 3, 2018. She was 88 years of age.

She was born in Shan Dong Province, China. She was married to her late husband Yu Nong Li (李雨农) in 1954 in Beijing, China. She graduated with Bachelor of Art degree in English Literature from the University of International Business (外贸学院) in Beijing, China. She worked as a translator in the Department of Foreign Trade. Later she taught English at No.44 High School in Beijing.

She invested her heart in educating the next generation. Beyond raising and educating her own children, she made long lasting impact in her student's lives. Both her students and their parents are grateful for her dedication in educating the next generation.

She immigrated to America in 1992. Since 2003 she has being intermittently teaching and volunteering in the kindergarten age group at the Hope Chinese School in Fairfax, Virginia. It gives her great joy to teach the young children in the Chinese School.

She is survived by her four children Hong (李虹), Addy(李宁), Ronly(李戎), Dinny(李卉), and five grandchildren Zhong Hui (李中惠), Marina(李瀛),

Noah(李海), Dylan(李浩浩), Jennifer(李溪溪)。

Tribute Wall

“ Fang Yeng Sui

October 27, 2022 at 09:45 PM

“ Fang Yeng Sui

Pink Tribute Spray - March 10, 2018 at 12:00 AM

“ Fang Yeng Sui

Pink Tribute Spray - March 09, 2018 at 12:00 AM