

Faye Carolyn Heflin

February 7, 1941 - September 9, 2025

Faye Carolyn Heflin passed away peacefully on Tuesday, September 9th, 2025, at the age of 84.

Faye was born on February 7th, 1941, in Augusta County, Virginia, to Ida Lillian Wilfong and Claude Lee Obaugh, the third child of six siblings - Jean, Joe, Louis, Hope, and Barbara.

Faye attended Annandale High School and met Vincent through her cousin, Nancy, and her soon-to-be husband, Robert. They went out on a double date and hit it off from there. With their birthdays being just two days apart, it only made sense to marry on the day between. On February 6th, 1960, Vincent Heflin and Faye Obaugh were married.

They made their home in Alexandria, where they raised their two daughters. She began her career at C'P Telephone company and later worked at Ensco for more than 25 years, managing the phone systems before her retirement. Once their children were grown, she and her husband began showing cars, proudly touring their prizewinning '36 Coupe, affectionately nicknamed "Fine as Wine." Faye also loved cheering on her children and grandchildren at countless sporting events. At home, she found joy in playing the piano. Although she never learned to read music, she could play nearly any song after hearing it just once.

In 1994, they purchased property in Caroline County, Virginia, where they eventually built their dream home. Construction was completed in 2002, and by 2004, they had moved in, filling the house with warmth, love, and countless memories.

Faye was a strong-willed woman - always making sure that your outside clothes did not touch her couch. She was known for her humor and thoughtfulness, rarely letting a day go by without calling a family member, and never forgetting to call and sing "Happy Birthday."

Now, she joins her loving husband, Vincent E. Heflin, to whom she was married for 62 years. She is lovingly remembered by her sister, Barbara Dorn (Mike); daughters, Sherry Nealey and Shannon Faye LeViner; her grandchildren, Austin Nealey (Brooke Nealey), Ashlin Nealey, and Lia LeViner; and her great-grandchildren, Ryker Nealey and Emma Sparkman.

“ This is a memory I'll cherish forever and never forget. I'm so glad I caught this on video because this was the best day with our family. It was the 4th of July and we were all listening to music, hanging out, and just enjoying time with grandma at the river. She had a blast and she danced and sang to one of her favorite songs with us. It made us all crack up when she yelled “get the whole neighborhood - it's a block party!” ❤️.

“ So many memories made throughout the years. The last two there is too many to even write about. Some of my favorites were taking you to baseball games to watch Ryker and Emma's dance recitals. One memory I cherish is when we had our spa night together and you laughed so much during it. Tell grandad and Tankers hi for me!
