“ We got to know Vickie and Dennis over 20 years ago. I first met Vickie, when I started helping with Dennis, and we became very close friends. Soon after Dwight became involved with us, and then we started the trips to the farm. I would stay with Dennis and Dwight would help Vickie with the trees etc. Even after Dennis passing we remained close friends and continued our trips to the farm, some of our fondest memories.

During the day we would help with the farm and in the evenings we would enjoy playing scrabble until late into the night. Vickie was an excellent player and was very serious about winning. And she usually always did. Our discussions were a lot of fun too, as we diagnosed all of the worlds problems from every angle, and if only they would listen to us....we'd be so much better off.

She was such a joy to be with, we have been so blessed to know her and loved her dearly. We are so thankful she shared those times with us, and she will be greatly missed. Thanks to the family for sharing her with us and welcoming us as part of the family.

“ Our memory of Vicky was she was always up for seeing things, laughter, she loved to be in company, and she was jill’s drinking buddy.

I think if let lose the two of them would have been in lots of trouble. We will have some great memories of our time spent with Vicky, and she will be sadly missed. Steven and Jill Schmidt, In England.

Oops, I thought she was in this photo when I posted it. But she was at this Nats game in spirit!
