“ To Frank's family,

We just wanted to let you know how sad we are to realize that Frank is no longer with us. It seems like only yesterday we were hanging out in Frankâ€™s Cowboy Den with Bonnie by his site updating us all on latest Washington news. They were so much in love.

Frank was an officer and a gentlemen eager to help anyone and anytime. He was always there for Lucy when Zbig was traveling, never complaining and always with a big smile and a big hug to share.

Frankâ€™s meticulous housekeeping habits became a neighborhood standard. Frank was open minded, intelligent and a great writer. We wish he came earlier to our lives.

Frank was a great friend and neighbor. We are going to miss him very much and all the good times we spend together talking and arguing with Bonnie until morning hours.

May God bless and comfort Frank and his great family at this time.

We love you Frank.

With warmest regards,

Zbig and Lucy Karaszewski

“ To the Wilson Family,
It is human to cry. Crying helps you to heal. Cry with friends, family, and alone. Don't be surprised when the grief & freight train runs over you. Just be in the moment, and it will pass. Struggle through your emotions and you will find relief as your reward.
Psalm 30:5 “ Weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning.
Much Love and Prayers go out to you- William and Wanda Brisco
