

Frank J. Stuart

February 14, 1961 - January 12, 2024

Our hearts are heavy as we say goodbye to a cherished soul, Frank J. Stuart AKA "Jack." Frank departed from this life at his home in Alexandria, Virginia on January 12, 2024. Frank's journey through life as a family man, Marine Corps Veteran, and accomplished businessman (President/CEO of Global Professional Solutions, Inc.) inspired and touched many. Born on February 14, 1961 to the late Frank Stuart Senior and Willie B. Stuart, Frank shared a special bond with his siblings, the late Robert (Skip), the late Leroy, Lillie, and Renee. Frank's memory lives on through his children, Cedric, Franklin-Daniel, Austin, and Harmony; his grandchildren, Cedric Jr. and Corey; as well as family members, countless friends, business colleagues, and fellow Cleveland Brown and Washington Commander fans who held a special place in his heart. Funeral services will be held at Reality Church, 5937 Franconia Rd., Alexandria, VA 22310, on Thursday, January 25, 2024, at 12:30pm. Interment to be held privately at Quantico National Cemetery.

“ My heart is broken to learn of Frank’s passing. He was like a brother. He served in the Marine Corps with my brother which is how we met Frank. After leaving the military, he decided to stay in Northern Virginia and lived with my parents for a short while. I watched him grow into the successful businessman that he always said he would become. We stayed in touch over the years. The last time I was in his company was at my brother’s funeral three years ago. Rest in peace Frank—I’m sure you and “the duke” are up to your Marine Corps antics. Love you.

“ Happy Heavenly Birthday Mr. Stuart. Happy Valentines Day! You will be missed. I'm really glad I got to talk to you after all these years a few days before you left us. You provided me a great boost in my career by putting me in all types of positions, you having the faith to know I would figure it out and get the job done. I thank you for believing in me. You left a imprint on a lot of people and provided a career start for many. Well Done! Rest well in Paradise Sir.

“ Frank you are resting now God knows you didn't know how to in life. You were such a go getter and I love and appreciate you for all the lessons you gave me in my young life. Thank you for putting up with my cat, giving me my first real job out of high school and loving me like your daughter. It's so hard for me to even write this because you're supposed to be here still. Thank you for showing me how to build an empire , how to walk in a room and command it, how to exude black excellence! I'll always remember Aruba and the many other memories we shared over the years.... You will forever be missed!!!! I pray that CJ, Austin, Daniel and Harmony are able to heal from this tremendous loss. I'm sending healing energy and many prayers to your family.

“ Its still surreal that I’m writing this as I prepare to head to your hoemgoong celebration today...

The Triple OG of Government Contracting is what I called you, with teary eyes, I’m sharing my final Sit-Rep and ironically it’s on a Thursday, just like the old days. I’ve been deeply saddened by your loss. Your guidance and mentorship meant a great deal to me and over the years I didn’t shy away from telling you that. I am grateful for the impact that had on my life. From my initial interview at GPS, I took pride in reaching out for our calls and texts just to tell you I get it. You would say, “You may not like my methods but you’ll love my outcomes”, in the moment maybe not so much but as I reflected back over the years, I’m appreciative for the opportunity you gave me. I’ll never forget the lessons you taught, the proposal sequences, the toasts at award(I was just showing off for you, I’m not a drinker and my chest is burning thinking about it but I’d love to take another toast and hear you ring that bell) the secret missions to go grab lunch, our holiday dinners with the “great food” and spades games. As a leader you were definitely ahead of your time.

Rest well my friend,

Glenwood (4 and 5)

Family my thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time. Please know that I am here for you all.

“ Today we will say good bye to my uncle that I loved more than he will ever know. He showed me that it does not matter where you come from you can accomplish anything if you work hard enough for it. He inspired me to be the woman I am today. My uncle will be missed tremendously.

My love goes out to my Granny, My mom, Auntie Renee, and cousins Cedric, Daniel, Austin, and Harmony.

We will get through this together. Family for Life!!!!

“ Dear Frank,

As I sit down to pen this tribute, I am filled with a profound sense of gratitude for the two decades of friendship and mentorship you have generously shared with me. Your name, Frank, has always been a fitting testament to the honesty and candor that you've consistently brought to our discussions and collaborations.

Your insights have been nothing short of a beacon, guiding not only my decisions but also shaping the way I view challenges and opportunities. You've always had a remarkable way of cutting through complexity with your 'frank' assessments, making the insurmountable seem manageable.

In the business community, you are more than just a leader; you are an inspiration. Your ability to show us what is possible has opened doors we never knew existed. You've not only charted a path of success but have also illuminated it for many of us to follow. Your guidance has been a compass for countless professionals, myself included, who have welcomed your wisdom and experience.

Your absence will be deeply felt. The void left by your departure is a testament to the significant impact you've had on all of us. You have been more than a business partner; you have been a mentor, a guide, and a friend.

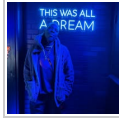

Your love ones should always remember that your legacy is indelible. The lessons you've imparted, the wisdom you've shared, and the example you've set will continue to influence and inspire. You will be dearly missed, but your impact will remain a guiding light.

Thank you, Frank, for everything.

Warm regards,

Philip

“ Words cannot begin to express how deeply sadden I was to hear of the sudden passing of my friend Frank Stuart. I first met Frank at Mike's Grill in Springfield Va. He was in the business of developing personnel for our struggles in both Iraq and Afghanistan. I provided him with a few leads, and they became very productive for Frank and his business. We thereafter would run into each other at Mike's; along with a few other friends and discuss domestic and world events. We considered ourselves coffeehouse scribes on any and all topics. Frank impressed me with his positive can do attitude. I suppose he picked that up in the Corp. Like most of us, at times he could be fairly "frank" and direct; but most of the time, he was as gentle as one could be. Being a military man and retired Special Agent myself, Frank was just the type of guy that you wanted on your side if the going got bad. I for one will miss those mid day talks that we so often had, and the good advice that he always was ready to dispense. Let me state with the strongest sense of condolences; that I will miss Frank. I hope that the family knows what a special person he was. May God have mercy on his soul, and may peace be upon him and his family.
