“ So sorry to hear about the passing of your father, he was a lovely man and we remember fondly the times we got to spend with him and Frances, although many years ago. My grandmother Emilie had much fondness for her schoolfriend Frances and her husband Fred. Sincerest wishes Narelle in South Australia

“ I have been praying for your family to be comforted during this time of loss and grieving. My dad, Vince Partsch, died in 2008 and was also inurned in Arlington Cemetery. I know that family coming together to celebrate and honor the person's life is also very comforting. I would like to join you at the service in Arlington if at all possible since I am in the Richmond, VA area. It meant a lot to me when Aunt Therese's family came to my dad's funeral, however, if close family is your plan, I will respect that as well. With love and continued prayers, Joanie

“ Dear Miss Frances and Family: My name is Tammy Johnson. Although I did not have the privilege of knowing Mr. Brown, I do know the pain and sadness that is associated with the death of a loved one. I wanted to let you know that I am so sorry for your loss. Please accept my condolences. I recently experienced the loss of a family member, also. May you find comfort in Gods promise of resurrection to come. Jesus says at John 5:26, 28, and 29, For just as the Father has life in himself, so he has granted also to the Son to have life in himself. Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out This promised miracle of Jehovah God, to be accomplished through His son, Jesus, can give us hope now and help us to cope-because nothing can remedy your mournful tears except to have Frederick alive, healthy, and in your midst again (Isaiah 26:19; Isaiah 33:24; Rev. 21:3-5). Wouldnt you agree? May our faith be as assured as Marthas, Lazarus sister, who spoke in faith to Jesus concerning her dead brother, I know he will rise in the resurrection on the last day (John 11:24). As we anticipate that day, may you find consolation from Gods word the Bible (Romans 15:4). Again, you have my deepest sympathy.

“ Tante Franzi and family: I extend my heartfelt sympathy and prayers to you during this very difficult time. From all that you have shared, your husband/father was dearly loved and admired, and he deeply loved all of you too. Take comfort in each other and the many loving and special memories you've shared as a family.
