

Frederick McGovern Pedrotti

August 12, 1958 - October 12, 2013

Died peacefully at his Warrenton, VA home on Oct. 12, 2013 surrounded by his loving wife and family. He fought his two-year lymphoma battle with grace, courage and dignity. He is survived by his wife, Lynn Pedrotti of Warrenton, VA and her son Jason (Robin) Worrell and grandsons, Chase & Luke of Vienna, VA. Born in San Francisco, CA to Lt. Col. Peter & Emma Pedrotti (deceased). Survived by brothers, Peter (Carolyn) Pedrotti of Oakland, CA, Paul (JoAnn) Pedrotti of Plainfield, NJ and sisters Julia Schajer of Vienna, VA and Anna (Allen) Thibodeaux of Lake Charles, LA. During his fight, he was always surrounded by loving and supportive family, friends and neighbors.

A graveside service will be held at Columbia Gardens Cemetery, Arlington, VA, Wednesday, Oct. 16, 10 am. A celebration of life will be held immediately after at the family home in Warrenton, VA. No services will be held at Jefferson Funeral Chapel.

In lieu of flowers contributions may be made to Wounded Warriors or Capital Caring.

“ *Lynn,
You've had to be so strong for so long. Take a deep breath and let go of the struggle. Know in your heart that Fred is free from pain and suffering (he's probably pretty comfortable sitting around in his panama jack hat smoking a cigar and grinning from ear to ear!) If we can do anything at all to help you, please don't hesitate to let us know.
With love,

“ *Dear Lynn, Jason and all,
I am so sorry to hear that Fred has lost his hard fight. Words cannot take the place or relieve the loss you are feeling. Please know you are all in my thoughts and prayers. I send love and my arms with hugs along with many others to help you at this very sad time.
Take care of each other,
Love,
Lani*
