“ Anne I am sorry for your loss but I will always remeber the talks we had about the neighborhood and his keen eye for keeping things in place. I spent over 12 years delivering mail to the neighborhood and Rick was one of the people that made it so much fun to come back every day.

“ I met Rick when I became Secretary of the Springfield Civic Association some years ago and I came to admire him so much. The breadth of his knowledge was vast and his willingness to share it was generous and gracious to me and to all who sought his counsel, a true gentleman in every way. My condolences to the Renninger family and to all who knew him for the hole left in our lives on the passing of this wise, warm, wonderful man.

“ Rick was devoted to his community, serving as the President of the Springfield Civic Association (SCA). He continued to be a source of advice and counsel to those who succeeded him. It was always a pleasure to talk to him at SCA meetings and derive perspective from a gentlemen who had lived in the Lynbrook neighborhood for nearly 50 years, knew Lee District politics and business, and was eager to share what he had learned. Rick was a tremendous resource, set a terrific example for others, and showed why getting involved in local affairs is necessary to conserve those values that make the American way of life so precious to us all. May God bless the Renninger Family and bring them peace during this time. On behalf of the SCA, I say thank you, Rick. Godspeed.

“ My deepest sympathies to Mrs. Renninger and the whole family. I was only privileged to meet him once but Mr. Renninger's graciousness and welcoming nature made for a lovely visit this past May. Both he and Mrs. Renninger were so very warm and sharing that I am left with a wonderful memory of my visit to their home. In my project as a historian for post WW2 development and growth of Springfield, the knowledge he shared with me is of immense value and the loss to the Springfield community is indeed a great one. May your hearts heal from the pain of this loss but may your memories give you joy and strength now and always.
