“ I wanted to express my condolences as you remember Gary's life today at the service. I worked closely with Gary over the last few years. He was a great role model and leader. You could tell that he truly cared for the people that worked for him and he continuously expressed his appreciation for the work they did. I am sorry that I cannot physically attend the service today but my thought and prayers will be there. He was an amazing and caring person and I will miss him.

“ Tony & I never knew Gary, but we have ridden with Chris Call many times, and we feel the pain of his loss, as well as the pain of loss felt by Gary's family and friends. In learning more about Gary through Chris, we wish we had known him, if only to thank him for his spirit and service to his country. God guide you all in your journey toward peace in celebrating Gary's incredible life!

“ Julie, Jason and Chris - I'm very sorry to hear of Gary's accident and the loss to you all and your extended family. Gary was a role model for me in the VAW community and taught me how to recognize the value and self worth of everyone and in order to lead, one has to listen. Gary had a tremendous impact on everyone he met and will be missed terribly! My prayers go out to you all!

“ Julie, Jason, and Chris, I cannot begin to express my sorrow. I have been trying to process this since talking to you this morning, and haven't been able to think of anything except how incredibly good-hearted Gary was. I wouldn't be a doctor today, nor would I have recovered after my tour in Afghanistan if it wasn't for my greatest friend, mentor, and hero. I will see you Friday. In the words of the Rolling Stones, "Wild horses couldn't keep me away". My prayers are with you now and in the months to come. See you in three days.
