

Genevieve Catherine Stemple

July 20, 1929 - June 20, 2022

Genevieve Catherine Barker Stemple, wife, mother, sister, and friend, died on June 20, 2022, peacefully and surrounded by family. Our beautiful “Jean” was the eldest of the 13 children of the late Eva and Roscoe Barker in Newburg, West Virginia. She and her husband lived in Rose Hill, Alexandria for 67 years, where Genevieve enjoyed working at the Alma Shop in the Rose Hill shopping center. Jean is survived by her husband of 74 years, William E. Stemple; daughter Donna Stemple, son Ronald Stemple (Susan McInerney), two step-grandchildren Kathleen McInerney and Bernard McInerney, five step-grandchildren, two sisters, three brothers, and many friends. A memorial celebration will be held in the future after internment at Arlington National Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, please consider making contributions in Jean's memory to the Salvation Army at 110 East Main Street, Kingwood, West Virginia, 26537. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in her name to the Salvation Army.
