“ Very saddened to learn (through Father Pat Boyhan) that you have left us here on earth; however, I am sure you were greeted warmly by St. Peter at your new home. You were a good classmate (1975-77) at Holy Apostles.

“ Very saddened to hear about Gerry's passing. I remember our high school years and when we went to Boot Camp at Parris Island together. He was a rock of stability and sound advice. So mature beyond his years. I always remember how good he was to his mother. A good guy. My deepest sympathy to his family.

“ Fr. Jerry, You not only talked the talk but walked the walk. And as your steps grew harder and your health faltered you showed us living life to the fullest. Pray for us.

“ Dearest Father Jerry, Thank you for always being there , helping me to know myself , to know Christ and teaching me how to live as a Christian. I will always be grateful for the wisdom you so unselfishly shared with me. And I will carry this with me always , helping others in my path to know a better way to live. It is true Father , the love we receive is equal to the love we give. Through him, and with him, and in him Sincerely, Michael

“ It was a pleasure working for and with Father Jerry. He had great stories to tell and through our conversations, helped me better understand the teachings of the bible and as such grew and renewed my faith. He was very effective in his role. God bless
