“ *Diane and family,
Sending you all prayers of comfort at this sad time. I have very fond memories of Aunt Gloria in our "younger days ". Friday and Saturday nights at our house in White Stone. Hard crabs on the kitchen table and it was pick your dinner and play cards all night. Great old memories I will cherish. You all are in my prayers. Aunt Gloria is in the arms of the Lord now. What a wonderful place to be. May our Lord bring your family much needed peace during this difficult time.*

“ Gloria was such a special woman. I cherish the time I had with her and have wonderful memories from it. After getting to know her, I also delighted in hearing the "Granny stories", as we laughed and could picture it all. You will be missed very much, we are all thankful you are not suffering anymore. It was a beautiful day yesterday and the sun finally came out just for you Gloria after so many rainy days!!
