“ Dear John, Jenna, Kristen, and John I pray for your comfort and peace during such a difficult time. Grace will forever occupy a piece of my heart as a cherished friend. Much laughter was shared with her at your kitchen table and it is that memory, as well as many more, that will keep her with us forever. Much love to each of you, Barbara Blake

“ John, Jenna, Kristin, & John: I am so very sorry for your loss. She is now in God's peace and light. Grace was a wonderful example of what a positive attitude can do, not only for herself, but for all of her loving family and friends around her. She has been raised up on eagle's wings and I'm sure she's already found her way to heaven's "Animal Section". God Bless you all, Mimi & family

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with you at this time. Grace was a good friend to me when we lived in Hayfield Farms. Over the years we have thought of you guys with such fond memories. Out of sight out of mind has never been an issue with our military family. Please know we will continue to pray for you guys and know we are thinking of you.
