“ Growing up, Aunt Gwen was always one of my favorite people. My earliest memories of Gwen was when she worked for Eastern Airlines as a stewardess. I always loved seeing her whenever she came to Grandma Sara's or my mom's house. My mom, brother Randy and I even went to see her in Atlanta, Georgia. She was gorgeous and kind and I so admired her for having a job that allowed her to travel. Perhaps it was my youth and naiveté; but I always thought she was a rock star. It saddens me that she is gone so early. I will always cherish and remember her as an incredible and beautiful person. Rest in peace Aunt Gwen. Love you!
