“ To the Wolbers Family, My deepest condolences with the loss of Larry. I was stunned to receive news last week that Larry had died. I had the pleasure of working closely with Larry when he joined SY Technology. Aside from the fact that his work was meticulous and based on careful research, Larry was simply a pleasure to be around. He was a thoughtful, caring and sensitive person. I recognized that special quality in him from the start. Regretfully, since I left L3 Communications/SYColeman, I have not seen Larry. But my thoughts of a bright, thoughtful, considerate person remain. My family's thoughts and prayers are with you. Respectfully, Jim
