“ Rest in Haven, Dad! Peace and comfort is now upon you. I'm sure you've already made plenty of friends up there dancing and singing with the saints and walking on the streets of gold. This life is just the beginning because we'll have all eternity to make up for the not so good choices we've all made in this life. Until we meet again! Love you, Dad!

“ I worked with Harvey for 35 years with the National Oceanic & Atmospheric Administration Photogrammetry Branch as an aerial photographer. He was a great person, and knew his craft well. God bless his family in their time of grief. Robert Clark
