

Harvey Stanley Wolfe

January 13, 1940 - January 25, 2025

Harvey Stanley Wolfe, born January 13, 1940, in Brooklyn, NY, passed away on January 25, 2025, at the age of 85. He was predeceased by his beloved wife, Jeanette Wolfe, and his parents, Joseph and Mary Wolfe. Harvey is survived by his loving children, Beth Wolfe, Neil Wolfe, and Adrienne Wolfe; as well as his grandchildren, Ruby Wolfe Norton (18), Nathan Wolfe (17), and Brendan Wolfe (15). He is also survived by his son-in-law, Jim Norton; brother, Donald Wolfe; and sister-in-law, Andrea Peteroy.

Harvey found happiness in the simple pleasures of life. Nothing meant more to him than the time he spent with his family, and he cherished every moment with them. Harvey found great excitement in handicapping horse races, and he would often call his family to share news of his latest wins. Harvey was an avid sports fan, faithfully cheering for the Washington Commanders. He also had a deep appreciation for movies, great food, and music, especially the smooth sounds of Perry Como and other classic crooners.

A 1958 high school graduate, Harvey served in the U.S. Army for a year. He grew up in New York City, married Jeanette in 1972, and started a family. They moved to Hialeah, Florida (just outside of Miami) for his work with Eastern Airlines and lived there for several years. In the mid-1980s, he applied for another transfer with Eastern, and the family of five moved to Alexandria, VA. Harvey and Jeanette watched their children grow and start families of their own. They were married for 40 years before she passed. Jeanette was the love of his life.

Harvey's warmth, humor, and deep love for his family and friends will be missed by all who knew him. His legacy endures in the hearts of his children, grandchildren, and all those fortunate enough to have called him a friend. A private celebration of life will be held at a later date.
