

Hazel C. Marshall

January 1, 1921 - January 17, 2023

Hazel C. Marshall, age 102, of Alexandria, Virginia, passed away January 17, 2023. Beloved wife of the late Donald Marshall, mother of the late Carolyn Brown (Jerry), the late Covert Williamson, III (Janet), and the late Gloria Elliot; grandmother of Laura Overcash (Henry), the late Sara Brown, Jennifer Meginley (Mark), and Kenneth Brown (Jodi); great-grandmother of Jessica Overcash (Stephen), Paul Miklovic, Jake Miklovic, the late Dean Spears, Jerry Brown, Kolby Brown, Tyler Parnell, Allison Parnell, Ryan Parnell, and Ayden Parnell.

Hazel was one of four siblings born on a family farm in Meridian, Mississippi. In 1940, Hazel attended Mississippi State College for Women. After attending college, Hazel left Meridian for Washington, D.C. to support the war efforts and took a job working for the Department of the Navy, in the accounting office, where she retired after 33 years of service. Hazel was fully independent and active until the age of 96 living her best life on School Street where she walked daily, attended church weekly, and kept an immaculate home. Hazel was a devout Christian and devoted member of Cameron United Methodist Church where she spent many years volunteering for Meals-On-Wheels, children's consignment sales, food drives, and pancake suppers. Through the years Hazel enjoyed cooking, china painting, gardening, traveling, sewing, quilting and reading (including working the Washington Post crossword puzzle daily). Hazel shared her passion of quilting through the years with her daughter Carolyn, they made many quilts together. Hazel lived her last six years at Paul Spring Retirement Community where she resided with her cat Elvis. Hazel was a survivor, wife, mother, daughter, aunt, cousin, grandmother, great grandmother, friend and Christian. She was known for always helping others. Hazel's life was filled with family, God and friendship.
