HE

“ I first met Hank when I came to Sarvis in 1999.
I loved loved loved working with Hank.
He was such a bright light, always positive. A true Character! Larger than life!
I wasn't know to Hank as Jennifer but rather "Mizz Parker".
My prayers go out to his family.
He talked about them all of the time and was so proud of his children.

Hank touched so many lives.
Heaven has gained a happy loving soul.

RIP my friend.
With deepest sympathy.

“ I had the pleasure to know Hank as a co-worker and as a friend. His personality, upbeat wit and charm always kept people at ease. There is a fair amount of competitiveness in our business, but Hank chose to treat everyone with the same respect as if they were all part of the same business and family. Hank developed relationships and trust with everyone he came in contact with. Great character and presence always left people thinking what a warm and all around great person. I had already missed Hank when he retired and will miss him even more now.

“ Whether it was work or travel or after a run or tennis he was always upbeat ready to live all 24 with an excited eye towards the next day! He was contagious! Every negative comment or argument he heard was brushed off with a convincing "we can do it" retort . Jags and redskins lost one of there best fans too...

“ Seems, I can remember like it was yesterday Hank and I having dinner. Conversations always drifted towards his beloved Jaguars, and as a Cowboy fan myself, we had some spirited talks comparing notes....always upbeat and cheerful..thats how I will remember him. Thoughts and prayers go out to all his family and friends...he will be missed, but not forgotten.

“ I still cannot believe my "buddy" Hank has left us! Rather than express sadness, I know Hank would want me to celebrate his life here on earth, and offer words of support and comfort for his family. I worked with Hank for 11 years at Sarvis, and let me tell you he was the absolute FAVORITE person I EVER worked with in 34 years! He made the work environment fun with his wit, humor and support. We took our jobs very seriously, but managed to keep it REAL and FUN! Hank did love his Jaguars, but more importantly, he loved his family. There were MANY times I listened to Hank brag on his kids, grandkids, etc. He was a man of MANY words, and the majority of those words were of his family. Hank, my FRIEND, you touched more lives than I am sure you ever knew, and you will be missed! Until we meet again.....My thoughts and prayers are with the entire family!
