“ Doris How we mourn the passing of the last of the Lacks clan...in Uncle Pat's death. How sorely you will miss this gentle giant ! Yes, we Christians grieve--but not as those with no hope--as the message of Christmas is that our Creator God has entered His creation to redeem us rebels...and prepare us to live with HIM--forever. How we wish we could be there with you in person--to hear your precious memories --rehearsing the many ways you enjoyed Uncle Pat's presence with you. Know that we love you and lift you both to HIS 'throne-of-grace' regularly. all our love, -Bill & Sheryl Greenwood -Winston-Salem, NC

“ Rita and Doris, you don't know me but I am a distant cousin of your dad's. My father (now deceased) was Melvin Kilby and your dad's mom and Dad, Nellie & Russell Bushong, were his aunt and uncle, I believe. I remember meeting your dad when I was growing up because we saw lots of my "Aunt Nellie and Uncle Russell" who lived close to our house. Nellie always talked lots about you girls - she was so proud. I'm not sure if I will be able to get to funeral home tomorrow but wanted to touch base with distant relatives and express our condolences from my sister, Janet, and me, in the passing of your dad. I'm sorry I didn't know he was living in the area - I would have surely tried to get to meet him and talk about the old times. Betty Cleghorn

“ Rita and Doris, We loved your dad so much, and he will be missed terribly. I enjoyed talking to him about his tomato plants - he was always so proud of them. Tre admired your dad because of his military service, and he could talk with him for hours about planes. Our prayers and thoughts are with you. Take care of each other. Love you, Carol Ann and Tre
