

J.P. Chenault, Jr.

April 15, 1926 - September 18, 2010

J.P. Chenault Jr passed away on Saturday, September 18, 2010 at the age of 84. Graveside services are to be held Friday 1:00 p.m. at Quantico National Cemetery, 18424 Joplin Road (Route 619), Triangle, VA 22172.

J.P. proudly served as a member of the U.S. Navy's Pacific Fleet during World War II. His dedication and hard work followed him in his civilian career, allowing J.P. to retire after 50 years as an aviation specialist. J.P. lived a full and colorful life that was uniquely guided by his Christian faith. He enjoyed the simpler things, with a special appreciation for the outdoors, a good meal, sports, and conversations involving mysteries and hidden treasures.

J.P. was born in Texas in 1926 to his loving parents Jacob and Nona Dell. He was preceded in death by his wife Clara and his daughter Rebecca. He is survived by friends and loving family who have all been touched by his carefree and compassionate spirit. Although he has passed from this world, J.P. will continue to live on not only in our thoughts and prayers, but also with God in heaven whom he loved most of all.

“ He was always patient and kind and ensured my days were filled with laughter. I remember waking each day to his request for breakfast "Jay, how about something to eat." I would quickly prepare him a tasty breakfast and he would take his first bite and always say "Mmmmm Good!" I will always remember his joy and excitement for a good meal and the satisfied catnap he would take soon after.
