

Jack Zebulon Moore

November 18, 1933 - May 13, 2026

Jack Zebulon Moore passed peacefully on May 13, 2026, in Alexandria, VA after a long and honorable journey.

He was born on November 18, 1933, in Alexandria, VA to Sam and Sadie Moore. He was the last surviving sibling of four brothers: Samuel (Pete) Moore, Robert Moore and John Hyman. He was preceded in death by his beloved wife of 54 years, Alda Joan Lunceford Moore, who passed on February 2, 2007, in Fairfax Virginia.

He is survived by his beloved friend of 17 years Helen Sampson of Alexandria Virginia, and three of his four children: Jack Wade Moore, Samuel Dallas Moore, and Margaret Jean Fauntleroy. His daughter, Janet Lynn Brandt, preceded him in death on March 26, 2025. Janet's ashes will be placed with her father as it was her wish. Jack's family nine grandchildren and thirteen great-grandchildren, each carrying forward his love and example. Known affectionately by his grandchildren as "Fuzzy," Jack was loved for the warmth, kindness, and steady love he shared with his family.

Jack proudly served in the United States Navy and later worked as a draftsman for RCA before rising to the position of Senior Vice President of VSE Corporation in Alexandria, Virginia. He was a member of the Fraternal Order of Masons, reflecting his lifelong commitment to fellowship, service, and integrity. His life reflected hard work, leadership, and steadfast dedication to his family, colleagues, and community.

Jack will be remembered as a devoted family man whose honesty, integrity, loyalty, and quiet strength defined him. He was the kind of man who always had your back, never spoke ill of others, and left behind a legacy of kindness, respect, and unwavering support. His life was a blessing, his memory a treasure, and his legacy one of love, honor, and faithfulness.

Graveside service for Mr. Jack Zebulon Moore and his daughter Janet Lynn Brandt will be held at Mount Comfort Cemetery on Monday, May 18, 2026 at 11AM.
