“ Dave and I are so very sorry to hear about the passing of your husband. We were talking about all of the fun vacation adventures the two of you had from the stories you shared with us. We know you will hold those memories close to your heart. We send our heartfelt condolences as you go through this very difficult time. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and all of you who knew him. Sincerely, Dave and Mollie Hutzel

“ Sue and I only got to know Jimmy for 6 years but became such friends and admirers of him. He was always smiling and always upbeat. We are going to miss you so much. You fought the battle with such class and dignity, we are proud to call you a friend. I know you will now have the best seats in the sky box to watch your Nats

“ Jeff & I were saddened to learn of the loss of our dear friend, Jim. 😞😞 Our deepest condolences on your loss, Annamarie, of your beloved husband during this difficult time. We always enjoyed your & Jim’s company, Annamarie! 🙏🕯️🌟(((Hugs))). It was amusing that sometimes Jim & Jeff were working at the same grocery store once in a while. They’d chat & vent. 😊. Also, sometimes Jeff (& I) would see you at a grocery store where he was working. You were buying a few things on your way home from work. These were very nice moments. We will cherish them. We miss you both. In our thoughts.

“ We were inseparable in high school. Our pack of four, you, Ben Wood, Kevin Waters and I. What great memories. We separated and went our separate ways when we graduated but that closeness and love was always there. Through Facebook we reconnected and it felt like the bond was still there. I love you and will miss you. There will be a hole in my heart that will never be filled. Until we meet again brother. Chuck White “ Jimmy, don't know where to start. You have been a wonderful friend. Wish I had gotten to say goodbye, but glad that you are now peacefully in the hereafter. Hope that you can feel all the love being sent your way by those of us who are fondly thinking of you. Miss you and will remember you fondly in the memories of our times spent together.

“ Jimmy, one day about 7 1/2 years ago you and Anna became forever friends of Suzy and me! You stepped up and helped make our small wedding into a grand event!! You were so free with your love and helpfulness towards us, a couple you hardly knew. Since then, we've loved shared vacations and laughs with you and Anna. We are heartbroken at your passing but take comfort in knowing you are now at peace and looking over us. We will be together again. RIP my dear friend, you are loved by us and many, many others. Go Nats!!

“ A light has gone out in the world. You always took such delight in the people and things that surrounded you, it spilled over on to anyone near you. Laughter from you was genuine and straight from your big, open heart. I will miss your kindness, optimism, sunny smile, and sweet happy nature. I will miss your joy. I will miss how welcome you made me feel every single time we met. I will miss how much you loved this country, and everyone in it. I will miss your unashamed adoration of Anna. I will miss how easily you loved and accepted anyone because Anna did, and that was good enough reason for you. I will miss more things than I could ever hope to put into words, so will reluctantly settle for saying that I am a better person for having known you, Jimmy. Thank you for shining a bit of your light on me.
