“ Janice, Tim, Ursula, Caroline, Jim, Gretchen, Andrew, Merina, Sarah, Anna, Padma, Nora and Bela,

I was so sorry to hear about Jim's passing. I had just talked to him on Wednesday before the trip to New York. As usual he answered with his upbeat Hello. I have always looked forward to him answering the phone because of the way he said hello. I have also always enjoyed his sense of humor.

There are so many memories that I could share, but I think my favorite was when I went to the NGS conference in Chicago with Janice and Jim. We left early and stopped for a few days in Ft. Wayne. Janice and I went to the Allen County library for research and Jim went to see the trains. Then we met for dinner. On Sunday the library was closed so first we went to mass at the Cathedral and then we made a trip south to a train museum. We missed the train ride by just a few minutes, but spent several hours in the museum. On Monday it was back to the library for Janice and I and another museum for Jim. On Tuesday we went on to Chicago where Janice and I went to the conference and more trains for Jim. It was really and enjoyable trip and I really appreciated them inviting me to go along.

My thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

Chuck
