

Jane Frances Bury

September 6, 1950 - May 21, 2017

Jane Frances "Cardegna" Bury, beloved and caring wife, mother and grandmother, passed away on May 21st, 2017 in Fairfax, Virginia, after a short illness.

Born September 6, 1950, to Peter A. and Mary T. Cardegna, Jane was raised in Baltimore, Maryland. Following high school at the Institute of Notre Dame in Baltimore she attended St. Joseph's College in Emmitsburg, Maryland, earning a B.S. degree in Nursing. At college, she met Stephen Bury, the love of her life, and married him on December 30th, 1972, which began her journey following Steve's Navy career.

Jane loved steamed crabs, the band Chicago and, of course, the Baltimore Orioles.

Over the years, Jane acquired many job titles: nurse, Navy wife, Navy mother, clinic aide and transcript secretary. But her greatest roles were that of "Mom" and "Nana."

Affectionately nicknamed "Saint Jane" by her children, she was truly a selfless woman, devoted wife and mother giving everything to her family. Jane was the glue that kept everyone together.

She leaves behind so many who loved her deeply and depended on her greatly. Especially her husband, two sons, her daughter, four grandchildren, her brother and sister, her mother-in-law, sisters-in-law, brothers-in-law, daughters-in-law and many nieces, nephews, cousins and those dear friends who were as close as family.

“ I worked with Jane at Hayfield Secondary school for the past three years. She was always a very kind and thoughtful lady to work with. My last memory was with her in March right before giving birth to my son. She was wishing me well and asking how I was feeling and we were joking about how big I was. She will truly be missed and I want her family to know how special she was to the Hayfield Community.

“ The many Fridays I spent in the TV studio with Jane were delightful. She was always the calm amid the chaos, getting the best performance, the best shot, the best we had to offer. She loved her family, her TV family and her work. A life too short, but well-lived.

“ *Dear Steve and Family,
We are truly sorry for such a great loss. It is so ironic, that, as we all grieve, on the earthly plane, Jane has now rejoined her departed family and is living a joy that we could only imagine. To help you heal, talk to Jane every day, and include her in every facet of your lives. We are positive, that she is, indeed, here, in spirit, and will hear you and continue to be with you all. Carry her around in your hearts.
Be serene. Be at peace.
We love you all dearly....John and Anne Jeffas*

“ Mom #2, that's who Mrs. Bury was to me. She was more than just my childhood best friend's mom, she welcomed me as one of her own. She was one of the few people that my own mother trusted me in the care of. Mom #2 was my chauffeur. I fondly remember as little as she was, she was fully in charge of the family van that just swallowed us all whole, toting Jennifer and me to and from softball practices, honor society meetings, rehearsals, a field trip, embarrassing to admit dance team tryouts and so much more. She was one of my cheerleaders at games/tryouts. Her smile & laugh was genuine! I know that even when she would yell at Jennifer & me to quiet down & go to sleep during my sleepovers, she was pleasantly annoyed because she loved knowing that us silly & sarcastic girls were happy! Though due to distance & time, it's been ages since I last saw her. However, she is always in my heart, I am so thankful for all of her encouragement & love!
Jennifer, Mr. Bury, Steve, Sean, you all are in my thoughts and prayers. I hope through this difficult time that you are able to cherish many memories that bring you comfort of such a wonderful woman who has touched many!
Always,
Sarah Campbell Schuette
