“ To the family,

My deepest sympathy on the loss of Jane Ann. Losing someone that mean so much to you is very hard, words can't express the pain and heartache you feel. Please know though that God is near to the broken-hearted and those crushed in spirit, because he truly knows you pain and wants no one to go through this. (Psalms 34:18, 1 Corinthians 15:25,26)

“ Jane was a selfless lady! I couldn't believe that she told me she would gladly take my suffering away while I was in prison. I thought to myself with all that you're going through you with be willing to take my burdens as well! That is just an example of how she is. She loves 100%. So I'm Overjoyed that she is free! I will miss her. But I truly know her. So I'm happy she is free and with God and her dogs.

“ I am so sorry to lose my beautiful, childhood friend, Jane Ann; we were in Romper Room together, enjoyed playing with our Barbies and always had time to pick miniature bouquets of violets...she actually was a talented artist and art teacher in her adult life. She and her husband, Jack, were a lovely couple and devoted with their family. JANE WILL BE MISSED AND ALWAYS REMEMBERED AS A BLESSING.
