“ Dear Josie and Will, It was with a deep sincere sadness that I learned of your mother's passing. While in one perspective living through to 94 is clearly a testament it does not make life any easier with the passing of your mother. Our thoughts are with you, my friend. Sincerely, Linda and Andrew Day

“ Wil and Josie, We're so sorry to hear about your mother's death. I know of no words adequate to express the loss you must feel. There is no good time to lose a parent and I am sure the holidays make it even more difficult. Just remember the good times you had with her and realize that she is in a better place now. If there is anything we can do let us know.

“ Dear Wil and Josie, I am so sorry to hear about your Mom. It seems so ironic that we met just a few days ago and talked about my mother's sudden passing and your own mother's problems. Please know that our thoughts and prayers are with you. It was indeed a difficult Christmas without my mother and so I can truly say that I "empathize" with you. I hope they have the opportunity to "meet" in heaven and enjoy the exchange of "great stories" of their children. You and I must somehow carry on the best that they were and in that way the Resurrection continues!! All our love, Jim and Diane
