“ Mrs. Firkins was my first grade teacher and she is a treasured part of my early childhood education memories. I remember how sweet and tender she was in dealing with the children in her class. I was no exception -- she once had to cut out a chunk of my hair after the boy sitting behind me put gum in it! She let me know that it would be fine. she was calm and steadfast. She and my mother,, Genevieve Burrows, (who died in 2001) were friends and members of Cameron Methodist Church together.
