“ *Jean Keith and I always compared our Moms and considered both of you as the perfect mother. I feel like I've lost a light in the darkness. Your love overwhelmed all in your compassion. Your greatest gift is the people you leave behind. All of your children are top notch. Heaven has a special place for the "good" people. I'll miss your home cooked meals and ready smile. I'll see you in heaven. Bill For everything there is a season, And a time for every matter under heaven: A time to be born, and a time to die; A time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted; A time to kill, and a time to heal; A time to break down, and a time to build up; A time to weep, and a time to laugh; A time to mourn, and a time to dance; A time to throw away stones, and a time to gather stones together; A time to embrace, And a time to refrain from embracing; A time to seek, and a time to lose; A time to keep, and a time to throw away; A time to tear, and a time to sew; A time to keep silence, and a time to speak; A time to love, and a time to hate, A time for war, and a time for peace.
