

Jean Kathryn Pavone

February 24, 1928 - July 1, 2013

Jean was born in Grafton, West Virginia on February 24, 1928. She moved to Alexandria as a child, attending and graduating from George Washington High School in 1945.

She was married to Lewis Thomas Pavone for more than 50 years until his death in 2000. They had four children, Antoinette, Ronald (deceased), Glenn (deceased), and Donna, and one granddaughter, Tina Pavone, of Ashburn, Va.

After raising her family, Jean worked as an accounting clerk at Washington Fish Exchange in Alexandria. She then spent several years at USAir, retiring in 1993.

Her hobbies included gardening, baking, and reading biographies. Her most recent pastimes were watching home decorating shows, Animal Planet, and classic movies. Gene Autry westerns were a personal favorite.

She loved animals and had many pets over the years. Jewel, a Chow mix rescue was a much-loved friend. Jean is also survived by her grandcat, Zappa.

In lieu of flowers, please make a donation of time, money, or service in support of homeless animals. The Friends of Homeless Animals, a no-kill shelter in Aldie, Va., was one of Jean's favorite causes. FOHA's address is P.O. Box 415, Aldie, VA 20105 and its website is www.foha.org.

“ *Ladies - my sincere sympathies on the loss of your mother and grandmother. I was privileged to know her and enjoyed her wonderful sense of humor, positive outlook on life, and all the stories and love that she shared for all of you. I will pray for you all and for the repose of Ms Jean who is now in a peaceful place. respectfully
