“Walt and Jean Seiberling are both very special friends. We met them in 1977 during an Army assignment at Ft. Huachuca, AZ. Our children Walter, Stacey, and our son John were young at the time. Our lives intersected numerous times, especially in Washington D.C., and we were blessed with so many memories, both happy and sad, losing some family members along the way. Jean was always kind, generous, and compassionate to everyone around her, as was Walt. She fiercely loved her family, including her grandchildren. Her extended family, neighbors, and friends likewise received her kindness. I witnessed Jean helping her mother Irene and always trying to help her get through her old age difficulties. Jean was the friend who helped others when she knew they needed it. When I broke my leg, Jean and Walt were some of the first to visit me and showed much love. She showed a loving heart in so many ways. Jean was a blessing to Sam and I and to so many others. Our friendship has grown over the years and is a treasure. I love and miss you Jean, and pray you are now with God in His peace, love, and light. We thank God for the gift of knowing you and Walt. May God be with you, Walt, Walter, and Stacey. May He help you and comfort you and all your family.
With our love and prayers

“ There are few childhood memories that don't have Mrs, S mixed in with them. From watching our endless dances we made up all the way to drilling me with flashcards so I would be sure to pass my final so I would graduate!! Endless love warmth and laughs and yummy cakes!! While it's been many years the warmth of your love you showered on all those around you can still be felt like a warm hug. Thank you for the gift of giving the world stage, she is such a beautiful reflection of love, grace and loyalty all things beautiful taught by you, her adoring mother. It's been way to many years but I love you Mrs. S. Fly high and I hope to give you one more big hug some day. Thanks for teaching me it's always ok to look forward to Christmas in July and that more than one tree is perfectly normal. Love you!!

“ For my 5th birthday, my aunt took me out to the Seiberling farm and put me on my very first horse. It was in a ver small corral. She just led ne around in circles, for hours! Eventually, she let me have the rains, and went inside and I just kept riding! Dusk was approaching and she came out to tell me that dinner was ready but I didn't want to eat-I just wanted to ride! She eventually coaxed me into getting off the horse. But for the rest of my childhood,, no matter where they wrtr stationed, she took me horseback idling on my birthday-best aunt/Godmother ever!

I love you Aunt Jean. My heart is broken. I wish I could have shared one last glass of wine and a Reuben sandwich with you. The memories of you and our families together warm my heart and I am grateful that you always included us in plans, vacations, trips and always opened your home to us. You were an instrument in keeping our family tight knit for all of these years and I will do my best to always continue your legacy of love for family and others. I will continue to pray the rosary daily and ask our heavenly mother and father for the healing and peace for your beloved husband, children, grandchild, family and friends. I love you, rest in eternal peace and watch over us our guardian angel. All my love forever, Danielle
