“ Ms. Lubar and family I am sending my deepest condolences. I am just now hearing of Jeff's passing. You probably don't remember me but before Jeff left NAR I was his assistant. I have so many memories of him he was the best boss ever. I would have loved he opportunity to have told that to him. Te best memory was the one I always refer to when I think of him is that anyone can type. Jeff used those to index fingers faster than anyone and we use to laugh about it all the time. I would tell him I could type that up for him and he would say "Naw that's ok I got it. I pray this does not strengthen your grief since it has been a minute but I pray that this will give you joy at know another person life he has touch. I was just looking to see what he had been up to because I am living in Phoenix, AZ now an am making some moves in real estate and wanted to see what his intake was. I pray yours and your family strength in the Jehovah, For Jeff his family was his everything so can only imagine loss you may feel. Shalom may the peace of God continue to follow you.

“ All the Rowson's are so sad to have heard the news about Jeff. We have so many fond memories of sharing back yards and kids and dogs growing up together on Karmich Street. I still miss those backyard chats with Jeff; maybe now more than ever. Hang in there, Barb. Nancy and I will stop by to say "hi." Paul, Nancy, Mike, Margie, Chris, Katie, and Lexie Rowson
